

Official Newsletter of The Cowichan Lake Arts & Culture Society

Cowichan Lake Arts and Culture Society (CLAC) has long felt that art could liven up the main street and create many points of interest for both residents and visitors. On June 3rd, CLAC will be unveiling the first of the art installations we hope to offer to the communities around Lake.

This Cube Mural was facilitated by CLAC Board member Kathie Fielding; however, all the artwork was done by local school children. She had smiles on her face as she viewed the art created by the students at Lake Cowichan School. Thanks to the support of the Art Instructor at LCS, Rebecca H. Scheer, 60 cube panels have been created and assembled.

Under the theme of "Art and Nature", the individual paintings reflect the student's view of the world around them at the lake. What better way and place to display this than the wall of a local business and child care location, Happy Campers Child Care on South Shore Road!

The unveiling will take place on June 3rd at 10:30 am. Due to COVID we request that people don't come to the unveiling.

However, please know that from that date forward you are welcome to come view the permanent display and celebrate the creative nature of our children.

To thank the students for doing such great work on the mural pieces, CLAC offered a draw for art supplies.

"Our hope is that this will inspire you to create even more art!"

The winners are: Amaya Fox, Grade 4, and Megan Rowbottom, Grade 11.

Thanks to all the students! The artwork is great – and just look at this mural!

Do you have an interest in the Arts in our region? Do you have skills looking for a home to play? Are you tech-savy?

As we learn and grow as a Society, we will welcome more Board members.

CLAC would like to create an installation every year.

Do you have some ideas? Do you have a location that would benefit from some art?

Would you like to join CLAC and support this beautification of the communities around the lake? Our mandated area is from Nitinat to Skutz Falls.

Stay tuned for more as we explore the creative nature of our board and give you a sneak peek at our upcoming projects.

We would love your support. Whether you are an artist or not your membership means a lot to us. Membership gives you a discount on all our workshops and events - sometimes as much as 50%! Join now and have fun with us throughout the year
